

VMD AMR Team - Role

The Veterinary Medicines Directorate (VMD) leads governmental decision-making for AMR in animals in England. We have a dedicated AMR Surveillance & Evidence team to ensure we understand, detect, and respond to AMR risks effectively, and make evidence-based policy decisions.

This exciting new role will bring additional veterinary and epidemiological expertise to this team, as we deliver on Defra's commitments in the UK National Action Plan.

In case you know anyone in your network:-

Recruitment for a Veterinary Advisor: Antimicrobial Resistance \(AMR\) Surveillance & Evidence - GOV.UK